

Events Schedule 2017-2018

15 December to 15 April National Gallery of Victoria, Melbourne	The Triennial Exhibition Premiers sculptor Ron Mueck's largest work to date, Mass 2017 , created using resin, fibreglass, silicone among other materials. Supported by King's Fibreglass and commissioned by the NGV with funding from the Fenton Bequest. Free entry
Friday, 16 February Taree, NSW	Steber International site visit The Steber family have been manufacturing commercial and recreation boats since 1947 and continue to evolve the business and enter new markets. At this networking, event guests will hear the fascinating Steber story and tour the facility.
Tuesday 17 April Clayton, Melbourne	Pre-conference Workshop: Composites Design and Manufacturing With international trainer and composites engineer Dr Rik Heslehurst
Wednesday & Thursday 18 & 19 April Clayton, Melbourne	2018 Advanced Innovation Conference An experiential program combining knowledge sharing on the latest developments in materials and processes with live demonstrations of the latest developments in material technologies, processes and systems.
Thursday 24 th May Sydney, NSW	Full-day workshop on methacrylates
Thursday 26 th July Canningvale, Perth, WA	Tanks West site visit and networking This late-afternoon site visit, tour and networking event is at Perth-based Tanks West. The company produces moulded FRP tanks, designed to meet the needs of agriculture, mining, industrial and domestic customers.
Tuesday, 14 August Victoria	Details to come on this site visit and networking event
July 29 to August 1 Cairns, QLD	11th Asian-Australian Conference on Composite Materials A three-day program with a divergent range of composite research themes including additive manufacturing and cement-based composites.
Thursday, 30 August Tomago, NSW	Compass Pools site visit and tour At this morning networking event, members have the opportunity to hear the story behind one of the most innovative and successful pool manufacturers in Australia and enjoy a guided tour of the manufacturing facility.
Wednesday 5 th December QLD	Workshop and end of year networking function Technology workshop on latest developments in FRP reinforced concrete structures followed by end of year networking function