

Delegate Registration

The 2018 Advanced Composites Innovation (ACI) Conference will be held in Melbourne on Wednesday and Thursday, 18 – 19 April 2018, with a half-day technical workshop on Tuesday 17 April 2018. Join global and domestic industry leaders at this important Australian conference for professionals seeking to innovate with composite materials.

In its 15th year, this annual conference, hosted by Composites Australia with the support of SAMPE-Australia and the Engineers Australia technical society – the Australian Composite Structures Society (ACCS) – has proven to be a valuable forum for the sharing of industry and scientific knowledge on new and emerging developments in composites technologies, opportunities for new applications and markets as well as sessions to advance business management and marketing.

For the latest on the conference program as planning progresses, visit www.compositesconference.com.au

The venue

The venue selected for this year's event is the Australian Synchrotron located in Melbourne's south east View on Google map

Accommodation

The venue has accommodation onsite. Delegates can call direct on 03 8540 4217 and advise they are part of the Composites Australia conference to book a room direct. Delegates are responsible for their own room and incidental costs. We encourage you to book early to secure a room onsite. Alternate options are available and further details can be found on our website

Getting there

If arriving by plane, taxis are readily available outside the terminals. The venue is approximately 50 minutes from Melbourne Tullamarine Airport however we recommend to allow more time as traffic can get heavy particularly during peak times.
